

Part of Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children

Thank you for your fundraising efforts to benefit programs at the Howard Phillips Center for Children and Families. Through your contributions, we can raise critical funds to treat and care for abused children. The attached pages will help guide you during your fundraising efforts. We encourage you to share the information Below with your friends and family.

- In 2008, The Howard Phillips Center for Children & Families served more than 17,000 people throughout Central Florida
- The Howard Phillips Center oversees and administers 5 programs that serve children and families in crisis, including an outreach program for child abuse prevention.
 - * HUG-Me: Offers comprehensive primary and specialty medical care, counseling and outreach for children and families infected with and affected by HIV/AIDS.
 - * Orange County Children's Advocacy Center: A multidisciplinary system of assessment, advocacy and treatment of child abuse designed to reduce trauma to the child.
 - * Healthy Families Orange: An intensive home visiting program to prevent child maltreatment, improve health outcomes for children, and build healthy, positive parenting behaviors for new, at-risk parents.
 - * Teen Xpress: A mobile healthcare unit serving uninsured and at-risk middle and high school students and homeless youth by providing healthcare, counseling, education and preventive interventions.
 - * The Developmental Center for Infants & Children/Early Steps: Offers developmental evaluations and early intervention therapies for children 0-36 months with developmental delays or disabilities.
