

Map of the counties of central Florida, where the primary servicing counties are Pinellas, Lake, Seminole, Orange, and Osceola. The secondary servicing counties are Pasco, Hillsborough, Manatee, Sumter, Polk, Volusia and Brevard.

Red Label for Primary Service Area

Gray Label for Secondary Service Area

Network has more than 5,500 providers

With 300,000 lives. Orlando Health Network is bigger than Pittsburgh, St. Louis. Lincoln, Anchorage and Newark.

3 out of 4 physicians are independent in the Orlando Health Network

Over 350 primary care locations